YEAR BOOK, 1915

Athens Woman's Club

Athens, Georgia

The Annual Meeting of the Athens Woman's Club was held on the fourth Monday in January, 1915, at the residence of Mrs. J. Z. Hoke.

Election of officers resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. J. Z. Hoke.

First Vice-President—Mrs. J. Y. Carithers.

Second Vice-President—Mrs. A. S. Parker.

Treasurer—Mrs. W. D. Beacham.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Charles A. Whittle.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. Cobb Lampkin.

Parliamentarian—Mrs. M. A. Lipscomb.

The chairmen of the various departments were appointed as follows:

Educational Department—Mrs. T. F. Green.

Social Department—Mrs. Chas. A. Whittle.

Art Department—Miss Annie May Holliday.

Infirmary Department—Mrs. Willis Bocock.

The Street Railway and Electric Company extended an invitation to the Club to use a beautifully fitted hall in the electric building, as a club room, and also for any uses that the Club might wish. This most gracious invitation was cordially accepted, and the Secretary was asked to express our appreciation for same.

Civic Department

The First Vice-President, Mrs. J. Y. Carithers, as Chairman of the Civics Committee, held office in 1915 until the work begun in her Department during 1914 was completed, which consisted in handsomely and comfortably furnishing a ladies' rest room, and in addition to $90.00 spent by the Civic Department, Mrs. Carithers loaned the room, through the department, a handsome leather mission suit of furniture, and after completing this work Mrs. Carithers asked to be relieved, and Mrs. J. S. Stewart was appointed to fill the unexpired term. Mrs. Stewart worked in conjunction with the city government for a cleaner, better town and the results were most beneficial.

Home Economics Department

Mrs. A. S. Parker was elected Second Vice-President, but could not accept. Miss Kathleen O'Farrell was elected and made chairman of the department of Home Economics. In the spring this department had Miss Annie Burroughs, National Chairman of Home Economics, to visit Athens and give two demonstrations and two lectures which were most helpful.

Art Department

Miss Annie May Holliday, Chairman Art Department, secured a most comprehensive exhibition of American pottery which was very much enjoyed by the various schools of the city as well as by the club members.

Infirmary

Mrs. Willis Bocock, as chairman of the Crawford Long Infirmery fund for the University of Georgia, and Mrs. Sarah Cobb Baxter, who undertook the hard task of collecting pledges five years old, collected between January and March over $500.00, making the total amount contributed by the Athens Woman's Club to the Crawford Long Infirmery of the University of Georgia $2,195.

The following letter is an expression from the faculty of the University concerning the contribution :

Athens, Ga., March 15, 1915.

Mrs. J. Z. Hoke, President,
Athens, Ga.

Dear Mrs. Hoke:—The faculty of the University of Georgia desires to express to the Athens Woman's Club its appreciation of the assistance given towards the building of the Crawford W. Long Infirmery. The faculty recognizes that it was through the help of the ladies that the Infirmery was made possible. In thus protecting the health of the students of the University, you have rendered a great service to the state.

Very truly yours,

E. L. GRIGGS,

R. E. PARK.

Committee.

Officers Educational Department

Chairman, Mrs. T. F. Green.

Secretary, Mrs. H. E. Martin.

Treasurer, Mrs. J. S. Stewart.

Treasurer, Ella White School, Mrs. C. M. Snelling.

Chairman Students' Aid Fund, Mrs. A. O. Harper.

This department arranged for the observance of Peace Day, May 18th, with appropriate prayer services at the large tent on the Y. M. C. A. lot; programmes for the Ladies' Minstrels were furnished; good warm clothing was secured for five families.

Social Department

With all the work done the Club has taken time for a recognition of the social side of life and Mrs. Chas. Whittle, social chairman, has had furnished most delightful refreshments at every meeting.

Professor Orr has recently given a most delightful talk on architecture and interior decorations.

A Minstrel show put on by Miss Hall under the auspices of the Club netted $88.00.

Park Committee

A permanent Park Committee, consisting of Mrs. S. V. Sanford, Chairman; Mrs. Hamilton McWhorter, Mrs. E. M. Coleman, Mrs. Julius Talmadge, Miss Mary Wilkins, was appointed to look for and recommend desirable park sites that could be purchased before they became too valuable to be secured for such purposes.

The Treasurer, Mrs. W. D. Beacham, has faithfully and efficiently discharged the duties of her office.

The different departments have worked so smoothly that none seemed conscious of strain and yet the aggregate for the year 1915 should not cause the Athens Woman's Club to feel that they have worked in vain.

Constitution and By-Laws

ARTICLE I.

This organization shall be known as "The Athens Woman's Club," and its motto shall be "Not for self, but for others."

ARTICLE II.

The object of the Club shall be to stimulate the intellectual development of its members, and to widen their range of thought, investigation and usefulness; to work for better homes, better laws, and to promote education in all its branches; to give aid to the town in every department of civics; to encourage economy in the home by the study of Household Economies, and beauty in the home and schools by the study and promotion of art.

ARTICLE III.

(1) The General Officers of the Club shall be a President, First and Second Vice-Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary, and a Treasurer.

(2) The General Officers with the Chairmen of the Departments, shall constitute the Executive Board, which shall make a full report at each of its meetings.

(3) The duties of these officers shall be such as usually pertain to their respective offices.

(4) Five members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

(5) Meetings of the Board shall be subject to the call of the President.

ARTICLE IV.

The General Officers of the Club shall be nominated and elected at annual meetings in January. The Chairmen of Departments shall be appointed by the Executive Board.

The First and Second Vice-Presidents must be Chairmen of Departments. In case of any vacancy the President shall appoint a member to serve the unexpired term.

ARTICLE V.

The Constitution and By-Laws may be amended at any meeting by a majority vote, provided notice of such proposed amendment shall have been appended to the call of the meeting. Without such notice the Constitution and By-Laws may be amended at any meeting by a unanimous vote.

ARTICLE VI.

The Club year shall run from January to January, the meetings always held on the fourth Monday in each month unless found necessary to change the date. The Treasurer shall send out bills for dues as early as possible in January.

ARTICLE VII.

Membership to this Club shall be unlimited. Any woman having an honest desire to help other women, shall be eligible. Her name must be proposed by one member, endorsed by two others, and voted on by the Club.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Athens Woman's Club shall secure a charter, granting it the privilege of holding property and the protection of the law.

ARTICLE IX.

The General Treasurer shall collect and hold all funds belonging to the Club except moneys raised by the different Departments for special work.

Each Department shall have its own Treasurer, elected by the members of that Department.

ARTICLE X.

At the December meeting nominations from the floor shall be made for a Nominating Committee of three or five, who shall make the ticket for the officers for the following year, to be presented to the Club at the January meeting.

ARTICLE XI.

Following the report of the Nominating Committee, nominations from the floor may be made and candidates elected by a majority of votes. When found to be necessary, a secret ballot shall be taken.

ARTICLE XII.

The President shall have the right to call a meeting at any time for the transaction of business. In her absence the First or Second Vice-President, or Corresponding Secretary, in order named, shall be given the right to call a meeting provided such a meeting shall have been published twice in the daily papers previous to the meeting. Fifteen members are to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

BY-LAWS.

There shall be as many Departments of work as the Club shall see fit to undertake. Regular Departments shall be Civics, Education, Household Economics and Art.

Members may attend the meetings of any Department and may join in discussion of any measure brought forward, but may introduce motions and vote only in the Department in which they are enrolled.

The annual dues shall be $1.10 payable in advance, at each annual meeting.

All meetings shall be conducted by the rules of parliamentary procedure.
